

Why This Matters

Internal control deficiencies in programs and processes could lead to misstatements in Department of Homeland Security (DHS) financial statements. Also, these deficiencies could impair effective monitoring and execution of Federal programs.

Federal Law Enforcement Training Center's Management Letter for FY 2012 DHS Consolidated Financial Statements Audit

What We Determined

KPMG LLP reviewed the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center's (FLETC) internal control over financial reporting. The management letter discusses two observations for management's consideration related to internal control and other operational matters. KPMG LLP noted deficiencies and the need to improve certain FLETC programs and processes. These issues did not meet the criteria to be reported in the Independent Auditors' Report on DHS' FY 2012 Financial Statements and Internal Control over Financial Reporting, dated November 14, 2012, included in the Department of Homeland Security FY 2012 Annual Financial Report. These observations are intended to improve internal control or result in other operating efficiencies.
